NO. 59

BEREA BILL BECKNER.

The Winchester Democrat goes for Bera Bill Beckner, of whom Senator Beck remarked that he had seen dozens of pictures of Judge Isacariot, no two of which were alike, yet all looked like Bill Beckner. The reason his home paper takes him to task is that he made three false statements at least, in his Munfordville speech as follows:

1. That he had given up a seat in Congress that was assured him when he retired from the democratic party.
2. That in Winchester Youtsey is believed to be the man who fired the shot that killed Goebel.
3. That Youtsey's friends boast that he will get a pardon if Gov. Beckham is re-elected.

The Democrat in contradiction of the first falsehood, says he was only given a short term in Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Marcus L. Latta after John Kendall had beaten him for the succeeding fall term. Counting the paper says that in 1892 Beckner was again a candidate for the nomination, and after making a thorough canvass of the district, making strong free silver speeches, wherever and whenever he thought that course necessary to secure votes, he was defeated for the nomination at the Beattyville convention by Hon. Thos. Y. Senter. In 1898 Clark county's candidate for Congress was Hon. John E. Garver. The convention was held at West Liberty. Thos. Y. Senter was the nominee of that convention. In that convention Beckner was chairman of the committee on resolutions which were adopted and which endorsed the Chicago platform of 1892 and strongly endorsed Mr. Bryan.

The next we hear of old Bera is that he was a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress, for which he was defeated. In 1892 he was a receptive candidate, but John G. White landed the plum. This very effectively refutes falsehood No. 1.

No. 2 is as easily disposed of and the Democrat does so as follows: He states that in Winchester Youtsey is believed to have fired the shot that killed Goebel, as far from the truth as his other statement, unless he refers to those who were glad that Goebel was killed and who are now convinced that Goebel was killed, and those professed to believe that Jack Chiles killed him and then claimed that none of them were guilty and who denounced the officials of the State for trying Youtsey, and who stated that Youtsey committed the unpardonable sin when he told the truth and confessed that the killing of Goebel was the result of a conspiracy on the part of Taylor, Powers and other republican leaders.

Falsehood No. 3 is shown by the Democrat, which says: "We do not believe that Judge Beckner can name a single respectable person in or out of Winchester, friendly or unfriendly to Youtsey, who has ever boasted or expressed the belief that Gov. Beckham will pardon Youtsey, and we do not believe that Judge Beckner himself entertains such belief."

The truth is that Youtsey attempted to make a confession to Gov. Beckham and the governor refused to listen to his statement, but told him that he need not make a confession with him of getting a pardon from him. Everybody knows this and Judge Beckner knows it too.

Where the Hon. Bera Bill is known perhaps it is a waste of space to give the above, but for the benefit of those who do not know the character of the man who sought and obtained the republican nomination for attorney general, we want to show him up in his true light. A few years ago he was a ranting free silverite. He was a democrat for reasons only and when the revenue was not forthcoming he became the vilest kind of a republican, available as water, not as easy to place as the Irishman's flea, and with traitor and renegade written all over his face, this modern Judas Iscariot has been taken into full fellowship by the leaders of the republican party, because he is of the stuff that they are made. Decent republicans won't touch him with a 40-foot pole, and if, perchance, he should be elected, even the meaner republicans would be ashamed of him.

The Proper Treatment for a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is in many cases a loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Wm. Smith, of Bourbon county, sold his wheat at the threshing at 60c. This is the best price that has been paid in Kentucky this season.

Don Patch, the world's fastest pacer, is valued for taxation at $601. M. D. Elmore sold to W. C. Shanks three Berkshire sows for $30. Blue Grass Seed for sale: home-striped. Banks Hudson, Lancaster, Ky.

FOR SALE—12 extra good two-year old cotton mules. H. C. Baughman, Hustonville, Ky.

FOR SALE—Pedigreed Poland China boar. Ready for service. W. M. Bright, Stanford.

Mark Hardin sold to Jacob Slevin three hifers for $54 and to Sid Myers six hifers for $75.

McChesney easily defeated the Pickett, Carroll Rott's horse, in a special race at Gravesend.

George W. Dugan, of Perryville, sold his farm of 240 acres to his son, John Dugan, for $10,000.

W. S. Glaze and Louis and David Bryant bought of J. A. Shuttlesworth the Duke farm of 315 acres on the Lebanon pike, 21 miles from Danville, at $105.

A year ago Mark Hardin sold W. B. McKinley a Berkshire sow for $25. Last week he bought her back, together with her offspring since that time, for $80.

James A. Buell sold 10 yearling males to Mercer county parties at $70. Ernest Duncan sold to same parties two-year old small mules at $70.—Jessamine Journal.

There is a drove of wild hogs running at large in Knox county that is probably the largest drove of such animals in the State. There are more than 50 head and all large and ferocious.

Stigall Bros sold at Perryville 30 hogs averaging 160 pounds to J. C. Johnson at $10 per 100. Joe Mc Dowell, of Perryville, sold to Gentry, 70 cattle at 50c. They average 1,400 lbs.—News.

J. A. Shuttlesworth, of Louisville, sold to Mr. A. G. McConley, of Boone county, his Gentry farm, located on the Lebanon pike, about one mile from Danville. The farm contains about 205 acres, and was sold for $10,500.

Judge John W. Hughes sold his magnificent Salt river farm of 542 acres in Mercer to John Horn for $35,500. Judge Hughes will make Harrodsburg his home, but will spend most of his time on the river plantation in Texas.

The practice of turning cows on young rye in the fall is a good one, but when the ground is very wet damage may result. Grazing the rye provides late green food; but while the rye field may be used for cows in the fall, they should not be turned on too early in the spring. It does not do so much harm for cows to change from grass to rye as it does from dry food in spring to the young rye.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over 30 years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even, as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. N. Craig.

The Pulaski County Medical Society at a recent meeting adopted resolutions calling on the county attorney to prosecute all persons who are practicing medicine illegally and unregistered and selling secret nostrums for the cure of cancer and other diseases. The county attorney is also asked to prosecute all druggists who are dispensing cough mixtures and other compounds, sold under alleged special formulas and collecting fees for same.

For a billious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quarture is certain. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Judge Charles J. Helm, of Newport, died suddenly at Cynthiana.

MIDDLEBURG.

Born to the wife of Aaron Coleman, a democrat. Rev. J. B. Ferrell filled his pulpit at Rocky Ford Sunday.

Corn cutting and sorghum making seem to be engaging the attention of most farmers just at present.

The rural free delivery subject seems to have subsided for the present, but it is to be hoped will some day be a reality.

W. T. Dye had a very painful accident in Stanford Friday—a wagon loaded with coal ran over his foot, badly mauling it.

W. P. Wesley has moved to the Indian creek farm and Robert Cowan has moved into the property recently purchased and vacated by Wesley.

The citizens of North Middleburg, "Needmore," are making an effort for the establishment of a post office, which will be of great convenience to the patrons of the north end.

Frank L. Lyon, aged 22, and Miss Maggie Benson, sweet 16, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of John W. Wells on Dec. 1st.

Rev. Hardin Newell told the consensual knot.

Rev. L. R. Gorbey is attending the M. E. Conference at Lexington and as a consequence there were no services at that church Sunday. His many friends are very desirous of his return to the pastorate for the coming year.

Miss Cordie Hubbell is very sick with malarial fever but it is to be hoped not seriously. Nathan Hicks is convalescing from a stage of typhoid fever.

There is considerable sickness in the neighborhood, though no serious cases.

School is progressing very nicely at M. N. C. under the able tutelage of Prof. J. W. Davis and his most efficient assistant, Mrs. Davis. There are over 100 pupils enrolled and seemingly much interest is being taken on the part of both pupil and parent.

A veritable drought is on here, so that having fallen for several weeks many farmers are either driving their stock to the river or are hauling water to them. Pastures are drying up and stock ponds are dry. Green river is lower than it has been this season.

J. E. Coffey is having some needed repairs made to the dam of the old water mill here. This old mill is not only an old landmark of Middleburg, but of this entire section, it having been erected during the early part of the 19th century.

Middleburg was known as Coffey's Mill for many years.

Jack Frost visited Middleburg Friday night, it being his initial trip of the season, though he was seen in other parts of the county Thursday night.

It is not thought that anything is seriously damaged except tender vegetation, though there are hundreds of acres of late corn that will be ruined with heavy frost.

The republicans are taking considerable interest in the coming primary of October 3, when a candidate for circuit clerk will be nominated. James Gibson, the present incumbent, and Jason Wesley are the only contestants, both of whom are making hay while the sun shines.

The trouble in the republican camp is that the race is yet unsettled, Capt. Ed. Peiffer, of Danville, still claiming to be the regular nominee.

The democracy of Casey is more harmonious and united than it has been for 10 years, though our party has been in the minority for several years past, it has suffered very materially from bolters and traitors and would-be leaders. We don't know of a single democrat this year who will not enthusiastically support the ticket from Beckham down. The Casey democracy is united, enthusiastic and determined.

The speeches of Gov. Beckham and Congressman James were just what the party needed, and that it will prove effective, goes without saying. The party is very much interested just at present in the candidacy of the Hon. Hollis Hurt, of Columbia, for circuit judge over H. C. Baker, a renegade democrat.

Though the judicial district is republican from 2,000 to 2,500, it is claimed with the disaffection engendered in the late Baker-Miller race that the democrats have a fighting chance. We trust that a bright day is in store for the mountain democrat.

A Costly War.

Thirty years war with the Achinsee, a ferocious lot of Malays, so bloodthirsty that they actually wanted to defend their own island and resist the imposition of a foreign yoke upon them. Has cost the Dutch $20,000,000 and has been conducted so privately that hardly anybody outside has heard anything about it. It is now over, the principal Achinsee having laid his turban at the feet of the principal Dutchman concerned, and the soft Sumatran atmosphere laden, now breathe of concord.

It is time high that the dove of peace should descend there, the hope, rather than the fear, of peace being that its roost may correspond in duration with its protracted absence.—New York Tribune.

LANCASTER.

Rain is still badly needed. Heavy frosts were seen in this locality during the cool spell.

Isaac Hamilton has rented the Anderson for house another year.

The Ladies' Aid Society meets next Saturday afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Price.

Ed Perkins bought Jas. Suttig's farm in the Marksburg locality for $2,300.

Elder Tindler's fine sermon Sunday, "How to Get On," was highly commended.

Seven car-loads of stock were shipped to the city market from here in the last few days.

A grand gold medal contest will be one of the interesting features of the W. C. T. U. convention.

J. W. Hendricks, of Paint Lick, has bought W. Ward's livery stable in this city and will move here.

Demand for houses to rent is greater than the supply and even now they are being engaged for next year.

Dr. J. S. Gilbert, of Shelby county, has located in Lancaster and formed a partnership with Dr. Hardest.

A Negro woman was fined $50 and 10 days in jail for having beer in her possession with intention of selling it.

Capt. T. A. Elkin has rented his farm and country residence known as "The Maples" to James House and contemplates a removal with his family into Lancaster.

An altercation near Potts' Mill Friday resulted in John C. Masters killing Whitaker with a knife, Ed Williams also receiving a wound. The fracas occurred on the Madison side and the quarrel came up over a barn.

Charles Doty, of Lexington, but formerly of this place, cut his hand and it was feared amputation of the arm would be necessary as he was threatened with blood poisoning. His condition is now somewhat improved.

Rev. J. E. Woolford, the Baptist minister, has just closed a meeting in Clark county and has gone to Brod head to hold a revival. Mr. Woolford preaches a three years' pastorate here the last of October and contemplates a removal north.

W. E. Kinsaid has returned from Columbia, Ohio, to F. M. Tindler, Mrs. Wm. Barnett, Misses Sallie and Mattie Elkin, Elizabeth Brown, Ethel West and Neil Johnson are attending the State convention of the Christian church at Paris.

Hot Shot For Renegade Owens.

Replying to an attack Gov. Beckham delivered the following hot shot to the major in his old home Saturday:

"Emity and enmity are a guarantee of any man's honesty and respectability, but one Maj. W. C. Owens has seen fit to attack me and reflect on my action in the collection of these claims. Of course, it is not necessary to tell the people of Scott county who he is, for until the last year or two he was a resident here, nor would it be proper for me to refer to so contemptible a character except for the fact that he was chairman and spokesman of the late republican convention and seems to be the oratorical companion of Mr. Beckham in the blackguarding for him.

His attacks upon me have no weight here or anywhere else that he is known, for his depravity is so deep that his abuse has no effect among those who know him except to commend the object of his attacks to their good opinion. He appeals to the young men of the State to join him in aiding the republican ticket, when it is a fact well known to the citizens of this county that this same Maj' Owens while he lived here rolled more young men than any other man ever did."

"That all the people of Kentucky know him as the good people of this county do, I place the brand upon his banner forehead and call attention to the fact that he is the same man whom William Goebel accurately described, and as you well know him to be, as the most notorious and conscienceless black leg in the State. He is now a fugitive from the score and contempt of the good people of this county, and every sense of virtue and morality he violated while he resided among you. He had sunk into married calvinism in the days of vice in the city of Louisville when he was recently dragged out to be made chairman of the republican convention and to vent his rage upon the democratic party by vilifying its candidates."

Sheriff Woodson McCord, of Clark county, who arrested Curtis Jett for the Marcus murder, arrested Charles Green at Lexington, who is an important witness in the Coker murder case. Green testified that he saw Jett and two other men fire at Coker from a courthouse window at Jackson.

Three prisoners awaiting sentence to prison terms for murder and robbery escaped from the jail at Frankfort, one of them having fired the head of Deputy Jailer Merritt Williams with a bottle.

If Lincoln county is not in good condition from a democratic standpoint we are badly fooled and if it does not go democratic in November we shall be surprised in the extreme. We confidently believe that Hons. W. Conn Bell, Charles A. Hardin and Jesse M. Alverson will win by good majorities, while we have no particle of doubt of the State ticket being successful. We have good reasons for taking so optimistic a view of the situation and our readers will find out when the ballots are counted Nov. 3rd that we diagnosed the political situation correctly. In the meantime let every democrat keep at work and put in a good lick for his party when the opportunity presents itself. We should not be satisfied with simply a majority, but make the defeat of the republicans so severe that they will hereafter abandon hope of getting office in this good democratic section of this magnificent democratic State.

THE democratic rally at Georgetown was one of the largest held since the opening of the campaign. A great crowd of men were in line of march to the grounds where Gov. Beckham, Congressman Rheas and Superintendent H. V. McChesney spoke. The enthusiasm in the crowd was unlimited. A number of republicans were seated on the platform, who signified their intention of voting the democratic ticket. The governor and Messrs. Rheas and McChesney spoke to a large crowd at Paris at night.

THE republicans have issued their campaign handbook. It contains no reference to W. S. Taylor or Caleb Powers, but devotes eight pages to the war record of Col. Morris B. Belknap, the gubernatorial nominee. A big part of the book is taken up with biographies of the men on the republican State ticket.

It is not an argument that the temperance people will use that Wolf Weisman, the oldest man in New Jersey, never drinks water. He is 104 years old and does not touch aqua pura once a month. He takes wine and beer and truly believes that those drinks have prolonged his long life.

THE typographical unions are after Col. Belknap to have his firm patronize only union houses, which has not been its custom. Belknap & Co. have ignored unions and laborers generally, but they will have to come to time now or get out of the way.

POLITICAL.

Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter will be a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress to succeed the late Vincent Boreling, of the 11th district.

Republicans who acknowledge the leadership of former Gov. Bradley, are indignant over the report that Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter is directing the State campaign.

Senator Hanna denies that he will resign as chairman of the National Republican Committee.

Rolla K. Hart was nominated for railroad commissioner by acclamation at Mt. Sterling yesterday.

The Chinese Government will make a claim against the United States on account of injuries received by Chinese who were attacked by residents of Tonopah, Nev.

Representative John S. Williams, of Mississippi, declares that the Indiana incident is not dead, and in abolishing the post office President Roosevelt violated the statutes of the United States.

State Senator George E. Green, of New York, has been arrested in connection with the postal scandal on two warrants, one charging him with conspiracy to defraud the Government in bribing George W. Beavers, and the other for offering Beavers a bribe.

The Controller of the Treasury has decided against the claim to pay for the Fourth Kentucky regiment in the Spanish-American war. The amount involved is about $50,000. The case will be carried to the court of claims, and if it fails there it will be taken before Congress.

Hon. C. A. Hardin has returned from a trip through Lincoln, Boyle and Garfield counties in the interest of his race for Commonwealth's Attorney. Mr. Hardin says the prospects for democratic success were never brighter in those counties and they will roll up a big majority for the entire ticket in November.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

The Somerset Journal pays this just tribute to Hon. Vincent Boreling, the dead Congressman: Strong in his conscious strength; faithful, untiring; the mountain of Kentucky had no more devoted and valued friend than Vincent Boreling. His death is a distinct loss to Kentucky, and to day she has one son of ability and devotedness less, whose place it were difficult to fill. As a practical developer of her resources of mind, heart and material wealth, his loss will be seriously felt. As a member of the American Congress with ripening experience and a will to accomplish much for the district which he creditably represented, it is a sad dispensation of Providence which removes him thus suddenly from the scene of his official honors and triumphs.

MT. VERNON.

Court began yesterday. Mr. C. C. Williams went to Winchester Saturday and returned by way of Lexington to see his daughter, Miss Riese.

Bros. Owens and Todd closed a very successful week's meeting at Buckeye Sunday. Quite a large crowd was in attendance.

Conn Brown, who is attending Central University, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents here. Conn lends a helping hand at the postoffice when here and is very polite and accommodating.

During vacation Dr. Hunt has done every thing within his power to make our school a success this year and we hope his efforts have not been in vain. The rooms of the college have been nicely papered and painted on the outside and most essential of all, we have good teachers—Prof. Bevington and Misses Alexander and MacDonald. With such surroundings there is no excuse for the children of Rockcastle not having a good education.

Hon. Harvey Helm, of Stanford, was mixing with our county people yesterday. J. W. Rider was in Crab Orchard Friday on business. Hon. B. J. Bethurum and wife, Miss Mattie Williams, Dr. Lovell, W. J. Sparks and J. W. Rider attended the funeral of Congressman Boreling at London. Mrs. Cleo Brown came up from Stanford Saturday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Williams. Miss Ella Joplin spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Georgia Rios. Misses Kate Spradlin and Eva Fish will leave Thursday for Williamsburg to visit their uncle, Judge Fish.

Half fare on all railroads during the meeting, Oct 6 to 17.

CIRCUIT COURT convened at Mt. Vernon yesterday morning with Judge Morrow on the bench. He has just returned from Petosky, Mich., and is in good health and spirits. Only a fairly good crowd was present and business generally was dull. The docket this term contains several murder cases and a considerable amount of civil business. Court will last all the week and probably longer. Mr. W. A. Morrow and Hons. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt and Harvey Helm were among the visiting attorneys. As usual, the street fair was present and flourished like a green bay tree. Mt. Vernon is building up some and is gradually increasing in population. Mr. W. J. Sparks has about completed his handsome home, which is the best residence in Rockcastle county. Democracy is in good shape in Rockcastle and a trimming down of the republican majority can be counted on in November.
